Qualification and Final Tournament REGULATIONS

§1 Definition of the competition

The Junior World Championships 2014 tournament will be restricted to Men Under 19 National teams whose IFAF member Federation/Association are both in good standing with all IFAF statutes as well as their IFAF continental representatives. All open payments to IFAF have to be settled prior to entering the tournament. This includes payments towards IFAF as well as to Local Organizing Committees.

All players whether playing in their home country or in any other IFAF or IFAF continental representative affiliated country shall be released by their club/team to play in games representing their National Federation/Association.

§2 General provisions and Financial requirements

The National Federation/Association shall enter its Men Under-19 National team, according to the established procedures, and will also guarantee the participation of the strongest team possible and liabilities related to both the qualification and final tournament.

The entry fee's of the qualification and final tournament are decided by IFAF and have to be paid to IFAF within the specific date. If these conditions are not observed, IFAF may declare the entry invalid, which precludes any participation, or accept the late entry and eventually impose a fine. Appeals may be lodged against such decisions, according to IFAF appeals regulations and statutes.

The organizers of the games must take necessary insurance, and in particular third party liability. If a stadium is not owned, or otherwise controlled by the local National Federation/Association, the realm of the responsibility must be clarified with the stadium owner and clearly defined.

Claims of damage against IFAF or its continental representatives shall be officially excluded.

A written document in English on the three aforementioned issues signed by the insurance company/companies shall be forwarded to the Tournament Committee no later than three months before the start of the final tournament.

The National Federations/ Associations and their teams participating in the competition shall undertake to fully observe the regulations as well as the decisions taken by the responsible IFAF authorities.

Entry fee for the tournament including qualification round is: 2.500 EURO

- 2) Failure to submit required information within 1 hour after deadline rate: Possible expulsion from the tournament, plus a fine associated to refusal to play §3 in accordance to non-payment of entry fee, bank guarantee

If IFAF Office or IFAF tournament committee are sending out requests to the designated communication liaison officer of a participant and no answer is received on that request within 48 hours IFAF may fine the federation for 500 EUR.

§3 Refusal to play and similar cases

In other cases than described in §16, refusal to play automatically leads to disqualification and the team is fined as follows:

Refusal to play during:

- Qualification rounds: 30.000,00 EUROS
- Final tournament 60.000,00 EUROS

The fine shall be paid within one month from the receipt of the IFAF decision.

Any actions directly or indirectly caused by the team or its National Federations/ Association, with the result that a game can not take place or be played to its full extent will be dealt with as refusal to play.

All teams must take part in the tournament with the intent to win every game. A team that doesn't follow the spirit of fair play and who doesn't take part in all games with the intent to win will be dealt with as refusal to play.

§4 Qualification format

The final tournament will be played as an eight (8) team tournament. IFAF will determine playing schedule and seeding after receiving entry forms from participating teams. If the number of entering teams exceed eight for the final tournament, IFAF will determine qualification games to be played or using continental championship results for final tournament spots based on continental representation as well as IFAF national team ranking.

§5 Qualification provisions

The National Federations / Associations are responsible for their own travelling arrangements to and from the game. In individual qualification games the host is responsible for organizing and paying for 2 nights accommodation and 7 meals for the visiting team.

Visiting team must inform the host and Tournament Committee with its travel details latest 30 days prior to the game or seven days after receiving the detailed information of the qualification game (location, date, kick-off time). If there is no information sent, the host is no longer responsible to organize and pay for the accommodation to the visiting team. Meals must be supplied in all cases.

Both teams are responsible for covering the travel costs of 3 game officials appointed by IFAF.

The host is responsible for head referee's and game observers travel costs.

The host is also responsible for the officials (7) and game supervisors (1) accommodation (2 nights each) and food (7 meals) Accommodation must meet a minimum standard of 2 stars and meals must include also drinks.

The host is also responsible for organizing the game and fulfilling IFAF minimum requirements for qualification game.

If a qualification game is played in an IFAF accepted tournament, which is used for qualification, the above does not apply unless otherwise decided by the Tournament Director.

§6 Final tournament Provisions

Post-game press conference at game venue must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle. LOC is responsible for providing interpreter and any technical facilities necessary for press. Both teams are obliged to make their team head coach, as well as two (2) players requested by IFAF Media Officer available for this press conference. Press conference will start with the losing team head coach and players.

§22 Advertisement

- a) Advertisement on the player uniforms is in general forbidden. Federations are allowed to fix the logo of the manufacture of player uniforms on the clothing. A federation wishing to fix advertisement of a sponsor on the player uniforms (including helmets) has to submit the request three months in advance to LOC and TC. Permission will be granted if there is no conflict with tournament main sponsors and the advertisement is suitable for IFAF Junior World Championships. A tournament main sponsor is a sponsor who pays a significant amount of money to LOC. Non suitable advertisers for JWC include but are not limited to alcohol and tobacco products as well as sexist material. The definition of a significant amount of money is subject to circumstances.
- b) IFAF has an exclusive right to 10 meters of arena signs in each end zone and one free page in the official game program in all the games in the tournament. IFAF has to notify the organizer of the game or hosting team not later than the two months prior to the start of qualification and final tournaments its decision to use this right.
- c) At all games of final tournament the logo of IFAF and continental representative shall be visible to the spectators in the stadium.

If in any country there are more restrictive advertisement regulations, or a complete prohibition of publicity, these shall supersede these regulations.

Violations of this regulation may lead to an imposition of a fine of no more than 5.000 euros. IFAF hereby waives and disclaims all responsibilities arising from disputes between organizer and third party.

§23 Television and publishing issues

a) IFAF is the exclusive holder of television and radio broadcast rights, irrespective, as well as any other use and distribution by whatever audio-visual and sound broadcasting media.

b) Provided that the principle laid down mentioned in §1 is observed and that the bodies mentioned above give their consent, IFAF agrees to the transmission of the games by television (closed circuit & cassettes included), online streaming, sound broadcast and the cinema for the qualification tournament games.

All games, which shall be transmitted by television, closed circuit, online streaming, broadcast by radio stations or shot by film producers, shall be covered by a written contract. IFAF is entitled to be informed in advance and in writing of the contents of such contract.

c) Since the original television broadcast and relays of the games of this tournament should not compete with other football games being played in the country of origin of the game and in the countries where the broadcast is relayed respectively, teams, national federations/associations and their affiliated organizations are obliged to include in all their contract for the ceding and use of TV rights the wording of §20 in these regulations. The National Federations/Associations concerned are responsible for the observation of these provisions.

d) IFAF recommends the participating National Federations/Associations to exchange videotapes from the tournament games.

e) Each home team shall record the qualification game and forward a copy to IFAF director of officiating within two weeks of the game.

Violation of §20 leads to a fine up to 10.000 euros. (Section e) leads to a fine of 500 euros)

§24 Tournament Manual

The IFAF Tournament Manual with procedures, interpretations, standards and other information is an integral part of these regulations. Failure to comply with the Manual is considered to be a failure to comply with the tournament regulations.

§25 Miscelaneous
